Remarks on payment and cancellation:

All requested reservations for congress events are valid for 5 working days, during which period their actual payment must be made. Failure to comply with this condition leads to cancellation of the reservation without further notice from the organizer.

Upon request for cancellation of the registration fee and/or hotel accommodation until the date set as final for cancellation of participation for each individual event, the full amount of the payment will be refunded. In case it has been made with a bank card - when this possibility is explicitly mentioned for the congress event - the refund, in compliance with the specified term, will be done within 10 days by ordering a reverse operation on the card with which the payment has been made.

In case of partial or complete cancellations after the deadline specified as possible for a specific event - amounts are not refundable.

In case of a bank transfer, the bank fees are at the expense of the ordering party.
